Explanation of Immigrant Benefits

If you have applied for or received any of the immigration benefits below, you may be legally entitled to confidentiality regarding these benefits. An explanation of these benefits is provided below to help you identify whether you have applied for such benefits. If you have applied for or received these benefits and you want DHS to share information about these benefits with the Recipient, you must waive your confidentiality rights by checking the appropriate boxes in Step 2 of this form (reverse). You are not required to waive confidentiality regarding these benefits; however, if you do not waive these rights DHS may be unable to disclose to the Recipient some or all of the information you identified above.

Temporary Protected Status (TPS) - 8 U.S.C. § 1254a(c)(6). TPS is for foreign nationals currently residing in the U.S. whose homeland conditions are recognized by the U.S. government as being temporarily unsafe or overly dangerous to return to (e.g., war, earthquake, flood, drought, or other extraordinary and temporary conditions). ICE may disclose information related to TPS to a third party with the consent of the alien.

T Visas and U Visas - Public Law 106-386, Section 701(c)(1)(C). A T visa allows certain victims of human trafficking to remain in the United States for a period of time. A U visa allows certain victims of crimes to remain in the United States for a period of time. ICE may disclose information related to T and U visas to third parties with the consent of the alien.

Battered Spouse or Child Information - 8 U.S.C. § 1186a(c)(4)(C). This provision applies to a battered alien or child who has applied for a hardship waiver from removal under the INA. ICE may disclose information the alien provided to ICE in support his or her request for waiver to a third party with consent of the alien.

Information Relating to Violence Against Women Act (VAWA) Claimants - 8 U.S.C. § 1367(a)(2). This provision applies to a person who has filed a claim under the VAWA. ICE may disclose information related to a person's claim to a third party with the consent of the person.

Asylum Information - 8 C.F.R. § 208.6. This provision applies to individuals who have applied for asylum, and confidentiality regarding the asylum claim applies even if the claim is ultimately denied. ICE may disclose information related to an individual's asylum claim to a third party with the consent of the person.

Revocation of Privacy Waiver

This Privacy Waiver is valid for 90 days from the date of signature unless you have otherwise specified on this form. You may revoke this Privacy Waiver at any time by contacting the ICE Privacy Office (202-732-3300 or ICEPrivacy@dhs.gov) or the relevant ICE office handling this matter or case. Certain information about you may be requested to confirm your identity and you may be asked to revoke the waiver in writing.

*I _____ (print name) certify that I waive the 90 day validity date on this form and extend the validity of this privacy waiver indefinitely or until I revoke the waiver - of my own free will - by phone or in writing.
