PUBLIC HOUSING and HOUSING VOUCHERS:

Public housing (PH) is low-income housing that is operated by your local housing authority. The Housing Choice Voucher (HCV) Program, commonly known as Tenant-Based Section 8, allows you to find your own place to rent, using the voucher to pay for all or part of the rent. To find out more or to apply, contact the housing agencies at the following numbers:

HUD's mission is to create strong, sustainable, inclusive communities and quality affordable homes for all.

SITE-BASED SECTION 8 (PRIVATELY OWNED SUBSIDIZED HOUSING):

The government provides subsidies directly to apartment complex owners who then apply those subsidies to the rents charged to low-income tenants. There are privately owned subsidized housing units for senior citizens and people with disabilities, as well as for families and individuals. To find out if there are vacancies or to apply, contact the management office for that site. In addition to the attached list, Site-Based Section 8 information can be found on HUD's Internet site at www.hud.gov.
